

Top Attractions in Australia

The Sydney Opera House

It is one of the most popular buildings of the 20th century. It is located at Sydney Harbour. It looks like a series of shells one on top of the other and it was designed by the architect Jorn Utzon. It is used as an art centre and visitors can watch shows and performances there. For more information you can visit their official website.

Uluru

Uluru, is also known as Ayers Rock, is located in central Australia and it is one of the most famous natural landmarks. It is a huge rock surrounded by flat dry land. There are guided tours available for visitors who want to experience the unforgettable sunrise and sunset views when the rocks turn to dark red.

Cable Beach

Cable Beach is only a ten-minute drive from the centre of Broome, a tourist town in northwest Australia. Tourists can relax and enjoy the sunshine on the 22-kilometre long sandy beach or do various water sports, such as surfing or kayaking. However, one of the best experiences one can have is a camel ride on the Beach. Hold on tight and enjoy an amazing view of the Indian Ocean!
